

ORPHEUM PRESENTS A LOUIS WEBER FILM

It is "Saving the Family Name"
Starring Mary MacLaren and Phillips Smalley.

Louis Weber, who created "Hypocrites," "Where Are My Children," "Jewel," "Shoes," and numerous other photoplays of uncommon merit, is the author of "Saving the Family Name," a feature film showing today at the Orpheum. The leading lady is Mary MacLaren, the beautiful and distinguished heroine of "Shoes," who will be agreeably recalled as one of the prettiest girls in the Bluebird family of natural beauties. Phillips Smalley, husband of Lois Weber, is the leading man. "Saving the Family Name" presents the question of the desirability of an actress as a wife and reflects the antipathy of some families toward women of the stage. Charles Chaplin appears in a fast (and real) comedy of real (and slapstick) style.

Tomorrow and Saturday, William S. Hart will be seen in "The Dawn Maker," a five act Trianglone masterpiece by Thomas H. Ince.

Ben Toy's Musical Comedy Company put over another good one at the Palace yesterday when it presented "This is the Life." The comedy part of the show is very good and the specialties who tries to save her historic old home by renting it out to northern strangers and herself with her brothers and sister masquerading as the family servants.

"Arms and the Girl," a play of the European war, but from a comedy viewpoint, is making a hit with Fay Bainter and Cyril Scott in the leading roles.

Among the visitors to the New York Hippodrome lately were a woman and her daughter from Allentown, Pa., aged respectively 34 and 33 years. It was the first time either one had ever been inside a theater, and the older woman remarked it would be something to talk about all her life.

At the Grand today charming Gladys Hulette is appearing in "The Shine Girl." This picture caused considerable comment in New York City a few weeks ago.

Tomorrow, the film de luxe, "Romeo and Juliet" with Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne will be the piece de resistance. The performance will start promptly at noon and continue until 11 p. m. There are eight acts in this wonderful picture and it is said that it is by all odds the greatest film

UNCLE SAM NOW HAS THE DEADLIEST OF AERIAL TORPEDOES

How new torpedo may be used to destroy a city.

The United States army has a torpedo for dropping from aeroplanes that will do more damage than any of those that have been dropped by German Zeppelins in England or by British or French aeroplanes in Germany. The difference between this and all other bombs is that it always explodes just six feet above ground, scattering its fragments horizontally, while the point at which others explode is always uncertain.

JUDGE BLOUNT IS AGAINST WILSON

Who Places National Honor above Party Politics and Joins Hughes Alliance.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—I have not ceased to be a Democrat but I place national honor above party politics. That is the declaration of James H. Blount, of Mass., Kan., in response to an invitation to join the Wilson and Marshall Democratic Association of Washington. Judge Blount is one of the most widely known Democrats of the country. He is the son of "Parson" Blount, who was in Congress for many years and who investigated the insurrection in Hawaii for President Cleveland. Judge Blount was a volunteer officer in the Cuban campaign, Spanish-American war, serving as General Wood's judge-advocate general at Santiago. Afterward he served in the Philippines and was commended for bravery in action. Later he was judge of the court of first instance in the Philippines and did much to break up outlawry in the southern provinces. He was the personal envoy of President Wilson in investigation of troubles in Haiti, having practically the same powers as John Lind in Mexico.

"Mr. Wilson's handling of the Mexican situation and its collateral issues, to say nothing of other matters, has convinced me, much against my will, that he ought not to be re-elected president," said Judge Blount.

"A man who will stand there an idle spectator, watchfully waiting while his neighbors house is being burned, the wife and daughters outraged by beasts in human form, and excuse his non-interference on the technicality that to go to the rescue might involve trespass, is too much of a 'high brow' for despondency."

When you feel discouraged and despondent do not give up but take a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets and you are almost certain to feel all right within a day or two. Despondency is very often due to indigestion and biliousness, for which these tablets are especially valuable. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

FALSE PRETENSE IS "PEACE" CLAIM

Declares Perkins after the Killing of American Officers in Santo Domingo.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—Commenting on the killing of Americans in Santo Domingo reported in press dispatches from there, George W. Perkins, at Republican national headquarters Wednesday, said the death of American officers in Santo Domingo "contradicts positively the statement that we are at peace." "This peaceful shield, behind which Chairman McCombs has been issuing his peaceful statements daily was torn down yesterday in Santo Domingo."

"Probably not a fraction of one per cent of the population of the United States knows that we are at war with Santo Domingo because of the fact that the whole foreign policy of the Wilson administration has been cloaked in the utmost secrecy. None of the military operations in Santo Domingo, Haiti or Nicaragua has been given to the public, and the closest possible censorship has been kept on things in Mexico. The entire Wilson campaign has been conducted under false pretenses. Their slogan has been 'peace, preparedness and prosperity.' We haven't peace; we haven't preparedness; and our prosperity is caused solely by the European war and is stained with the blood and tears of all Europe."

William W. Russell, American minister to Santo Domingo, has arrived in New York on leave of absence. When he learned of the engagement, he said:

"Until this outbreak the country had been peaceful for some time owing to the strong domination of the country by the American marines."

"It is extremely unfortunate that American lives were lost. The uprising will undo much of the work already accomplished. I am afraid."

WILSON DUPES THE TRAINMEN

Declares I. H. McNeill, of Washington, in Brilliant Address at Enterprise.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
ENTERPRISE, Oct. 25.—The gold brick Adams law was fully exposed by I. H. McNeill, of Washington, D. C., Wednesday evening at the great political rally ever held here. The meeting was held in the schoolhouse, both rooms of which were filled to overflowing.

Wallace B. Gribble, of West Union, nominee for the state senate; Ira L. Swager, candidate for county assessor, and Will E. Morris, nominee for prosecuting attorney, were present at the meeting and delivered short addresses.

The meeting was presided over by Ira G. McVane.

Mr. McNeill is one of the best speakers ever heard here. His denunciation of the Adams law and the vilifying course President Wilson has pursued in handling the affairs of state was applauded to the echo.

The speaker told the crowd that under the terms of the Adams law the question of mileage would be determined together by the railroad, who would pay their men upon the basis of hours. They are forced to do this or suffer a penalty, the speaker said. Therefore, he declared, if a trainman's run takes only four hours he will receive only one-half a day's pay, because he only works one-half of eight hours. At the present he is receiving a full day's pay for the same amount of work.

Quick Way to End Coughs, Colds and Croup
An Excellent, Inexpensive Home-Made Remedy that is Prompt and Sure.

Richard Walton Tully's play, "The Flame," is nearing its hundredth performance in New York. Its plot exposes conditions in Mexico and the indignities and crimes heaped upon American citizens. It has also some highly spectacular features.

Ruth Chatterton is receiving critical praise in New York where she is appearing in the comedy, "Come out of the Kitchen," in which she impersonates a young southern girl of old family but reduced circumstances.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts and Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passed sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Advertisement.

Newly Perfected Remedy Assists Tanlac Toward Cure of Rheumatism

Applied Externally Forms Splendid Combination Treatment, Soothing Pain and Soreness While Tanlac Works for Permanent Relief.

TESTS IN HUNDREDS OF CASES PROVE ITS MERIT

When after years of study and the expenditure of vast sums in research work, the Dayton, Ohio, Laboratory's corps of experts under the leadership of Herr Joseph Trimbach, created Tanlac as a new and wonderful remedy for kidney trouble and as a purifier and enricher of impoverished blood they might rightfully have retired and reaped the fruits of their victory over uric acid and so-called rheumatic troubles but through thousands of tests they have watched and learned much and now we announce Kimo-San Oil, a wonderful preparation for the immediate treatment of pain.

Kimo-San Oil has for some time been in general use among those who have taken Tanlac and these friends have courteously afforded much light on what it actually accomplished and today with equal confidence this new remedy is heralded far and wide as was Tanlac after thousands of tests likewise proved its merit in cases of stomach, kidney and liver ailments.

Kimo-San Oil is applied direct to the seat of pain, (externally) and this oil may be used to eliminate temporarily the suffering which is almost sure to continue for many days until Tanlac gains a firm hold upon the system and completely removes the cause.

In fact after many tests we find Kimo-San Oil has many uses not intended originally and has proven a splendid preparation to always have handy in the family medicine chest. For headaches, neuralgias, earache, sprains, stiff joints, cramps, cuts, bruises, insect bites and even toothache it has won the praise of many and is recommended for all pain. Directions for its use are now contained in the generous 25c carton and once used will never be absent from the home. When trouble with kidney ailments, pains in the back, side, arms, shoulders or limbs, apply Kimo-San Oil externally while you treat these trouble for a permanent cure with the recognized remedy Tanlac.

Kimo-San Oil, Tanlac and the tiny tablets that come with each bottle constitute a perfect combination for the treatment of such diseases and ailments as have been mentioned heretofore in the advertising. All three may be secured through any authorized agent. For sale here only temporarily the suffering which is almost sure to continue for many days until Tanlac gains a firm hold upon the system and completely removes the cause.
